REFERENCES

1. On the outskirts of Psie Pole (Hundsfield), a suburb of Wroclaw (Breslau), on the right side of the road to Olesnica, there is located a former engine factory (formerly called the Krupp Werke), which actually manufactures medium power aircraft engines.

similar engines on training biplanes of the German Luftwaffe toward the end of the war. About 3,000 workers work there day and night. Just after the war this factory had been manufacturing 125 cubic centimeter motors for motorcycles, but this production is now discontinued.¹

2. On the outskirts of Karlowice, a suburb of Wroclaw, on the road to Olesnica, there is a hydrometer factory (Panstwowa Fabryka Wodomierzy -- State Hydrometer Factory) which actually manufactures small shells of three to four kilograms, and fuses. It employs two shifts of 200 workers each.²

3. At Drawski Mlyn, a town on the Notec River southeast of Krzyz (Kreuz-P54/N62), there is a factory producing parts for locomotives. It employs 500 workers in three shifts. A cellulose factory is also being constructed in this region.

Comments:

1. this factory as continuing to produce motorcycle motors and only parts for airplane engines.
